Assignment

1. Show the equivalence of the Clausius and the Kelvin-Planck statements.

2. Show that no engine operating between two reservoirs can be more efficient than a Carnot engine operating between the same two reservoirs.

3. Show that all Carnot engines operating between the same two reservoirs have the same efficiency (INDEPENDENT of the working substance).